ABOUT ME

I am a motivated and detail-oriented Web Developer and Web Designer with strong practical experience in front-end and back-end web technologies. I have completed 1.5 years of professional training in Web Designing and Web Development and have worked on multiple website projects. I am skilled in creating responsive, user-friendly, and modern web applications. Along with web technologies, I also have a strong command of MS Office tools and data entry tasks. I am eager to learn new technologies and contribute my skills to a growth-oriented organization.
